The Archdiocese of Indianapolis
The Archdiocese of Indianapolis was established in 1847 by Pope Pius IX. It was the first archdiocese in the United States to be named after a city. The archdiocese covers a large area of the state and includes several dioceses. The archbishop is the head of the archdiocese and is elected by the clergy and the people. The archdiocese is responsible for the spiritual care of the faithful and for promoting the Gospel in the state.

Section IV

History of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis

The history of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis is a story of growth and development. It began in 1847 when the archdiocese was first established. Over the years, it has expanded its reach and influence, and has played a significant role in the spiritual and social life of the state. The archdiocese has been blessed with many great leaders, and has been able to overcome many challenges. Today, it continues to work for the good of the faithful and for the advancement of the Gospel in the state.

History of The Archdiocese of Indianapolis

The Diocese of Vincennes—now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis—was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the erection of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the State north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph and Warren Counties. The remaining southern half of the State made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing fifty counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north line of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River, and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by Apostolic Brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the See City. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment, the fifth bishop was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, although the site of the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By Apostolic Brief dated March 23, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief, the Patron of the diocese was to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes.

The Apostolic Decree of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by Executorial Decree of the Papal Delegate, Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, the Papal Decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an Archdiocese, the State of Indiana becoming the Metropolitan Area. The Dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette in Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made Suffragan Sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a Suffragan See.

A Society Annuity guarantees you an attractive fixed income for life—up to 10 per cent depending on your age—also generous tax savings.

“American Fletcher, you’re our kind of bank.”

“When American Fletcher said, ‘Cullisons, we want to be your bank’, we said, then prove it to us. And they said they could combine our checking and savings into one account—called Combo. So we’d have one easy-to-read monthly statement that would list our checks in order, show the interest earned on our savings and tell us what our checking and savings balances are.

“So we said, American Fletcher, you’re our kind of bank.”

Open your Combo Account today at any American Fletcher Banking Center.

We want to be your bank.
