POLICY: Adult clients/client representatives provide consent prior to receiving services and have the right to:

1. Participate in all service decisions.
2. If applicable, be informed of the benefits, risks, side effects and alternatives to planned services.
3. Receive service in a manner that is non-coercive and that protects the person's right to self-determination.
4. Be offered the most appropriate and least restrictive or intrusive service alternative to meet their needs.
5. Refuse any service, treatment, or medication, unless mandated by law or court order.
6. Be informed about the consequences of such refusal, which can include discharge.
