Seccina Memorial High School, an archdiocesan parochial Catholic high school serving grades 9-12, is currently accepting applications for the position of President to begin as soon as July 1, 2026 and as late as January 1, 2027. Seccina Memorial is accredited by the State of Indiana and Lumen Accreditation at the Catholic University of America.

Seccina Memorial High School has a proud tradition that dates to its opening by the Archdiocese of Indianapolis in 1953. Seccina is the school of choice for students and families who desire a Catholic education that provides unique moments to learn, grow, and go forth to transform the world inspired by the light of Christ. Seccina currently serves a diverse student population of over 400 students, 80% of whom participate in 24 IHSAA sports. Seccina boasts a student-teacher ratio of 10:1 and an average class size of 18. Named after World War II army chaplain Fr. Thomas Seccina who received many military awards, including the Purple Heart, Bronze Star, and Silver Star with one Oak Leaf Cluster, Seccina Memorial High School continues this proud tradition of dedication to serving students with military-connected parents and was awarded the 2024 Indiana Purple Star School designation.
